INFORMATION FOR FEE CALCULATION

Floorspace denotes gross floorspace and includes covered floorspace, columns, chimney breasts, stairwells, lifts, plant room and open sided covered areas.

Floorspace is taken as an external measurement, including the thickness of external and internal walls.

Floorspace is calculated on the floorspace created by the new development, irrespective of what the floorspace or previous buildings on the site was.

Where an application fee could be calculated from more than one of the categories C to J, calculate both categories and submit the higher of the fees. If you are in any doubt concerning fees for mixed applications, please contact Development Control for advice.

EXEMPTIONS FROM FEES

No fees are payable for:

1. Applications that are necessary because the proposal is permitted development, but has been prevented by a condition attached to a previous permission or by an Article 4 direction.
2. Applications for extensions or alterations to a dwelling or in the curtilage of a dwelling where such works are solely to improve the access, safety, health or comfort of a disabled resident. Applicants will need to quote their Registered Disabled Number.
3. A revised application following a previous application will be exempt from a fee if it fulfils the following criteria:-
  - a) The revised application is received within 12 months of the date of grant/refusal of the original application;
  - b) The development is of the same or similar character or description as the original application;
  - c) The site curtilage is the same (or part thereof) as the original application (and includes no additional land);
  - d) If the original application was withdrawn, the revised application must be received within 12 months of the date the original was registered;
  - e) The correct fee was paid in respect of the original application;
  - f) It must be the same application type as the previous application (e.g. outline, reserved matters, full permission);
  - g) The applicant may only have one fee exemption application against the original paid application.

If paying by cheque please make it payable to: New Forest National Park Authority.
Please send your application to: New Forest National Park Authority,
