There are 90m visitors to National Parks and surrounding areas each year, spending more than £4bn and supporting 68,000 jobs (full time equivalent).

Forestry in National Parks generates £19 million GROSS ADDED VALUE.

One third of the Public Forest Estate is in National Parks.

That’s equivalent to England’s entire CO2 emissions for one year.

Peat soils in National Parks hold 119 megatons of carbon.

50% of people in England live within 1 hour travel of a National Park.

OVER 23% of land in the National Parks is designated as Sites of Special Scientific Interest (SSSIs).

OVER 330,000 hectares is recognised and protected as being of international conservation importance.

Of turnover was generated by businesses in National Parks, and employment grew by 2.7%.

In 2012 £10.4bn of turnover was generated by businesses in National Parks, and employment grew by 2.7%.

17,300 people are employed in farming in National Parks.

OVER 1hrs

90% of people say National Parks are important to them.

96% say they want every child to experience a National Park first hand.

90m

There are 90m visitors to National Parks and surrounding areas each year, spending more than £4bn and supporting 68,000 jobs (full time equivalent).

One third of the Public Forest Estate is in National Parks.

That’s equivalent to England’s entire CO2 emissions for one year.

Peat soils in National Parks hold 119 megatons of carbon.

50% of people in England live within 1 hour travel of a National Park.

OVER 23% of land in the National Parks is designated as Sites of Special Scientific Interest (SSSIs).

OVER 330,000 hectares is recognised and protected as being of international conservation importance.

Of turnover was generated by businesses in National Parks, and employment grew by 2.7%.

In 2012 £10.4bn of turnover was generated by businesses in National Parks, and employment grew by 2.7%.

17,300 people are employed in farming in National Parks.

OVER 1hrs

90% of people say National Parks are important to them.

96% say they want every child to experience a National Park first hand.

90m

There are 90m visitors to National Parks and surrounding areas each year, spending more than £4bn and supporting 68,000 jobs (full time equivalent).

One third of the Public Forest Estate is in National Parks.

That’s equivalent to England’s entire CO2 emissions for one year.

Peat soils in National Parks hold 119 megatons of carbon.

50% of people in England live within 1 hour travel of a National Park.

OVER 23% of land in the National Parks is designated as Sites of Special Scientific Interest (SSSIs).

OVER 330,000 hectares is recognised and protected as being of international conservation importance.

Of turnover was generated by businesses in National Parks, and employment grew by 2.7%.

In 2012 £10.4bn of turnover was generated by businesses in National Parks, and employment grew by 2.7%.

17,300 people are employed in farming in National Parks.

OVER 1hrs

90% of people say National Parks are important to them.

96% say they want every child to experience a National Park first hand.

National Park volunteers put in over 43,000 work days per year, valued at £3.2m.

Public spending on National Parks costs LESS THAN £1 PER PERSON PER YEAR.