

Bolderwood Accessible Trails

These three woodland walks use gravel paths.

P Bolderwood Car Park

Deer viewing platform

Bolderwood Arboretum

Key:

- Trail Starting Point
- Radnor Trail
- Deer Watch Trail
- Jubilee Grove Trail
- Point of Interest
- Car Park
- Public Toilets
- Picnic Bench

Navigate using our FREE walking app

Scan the code to download the app and please follow the New Forest Code

Bratley Water

Bolderwood Accessible Trails

These Forestry England trails are waymarked walks. Just follow the waymarker posts to enjoy an easy to follow route.

Starting from Bolderwood car park these meandering routes lead you past the deer fields and some majestic trees, the oldest of which dates to 1860. The trees here are the acorns of those planted in the 1700's to provide oak for the Royal Navy.

Directions

Arrival

Upon arriving at Bolderwood head to the top end of the car park to the information point and picnic tables. Through a small gate is the trail heads for each of the three walks available here at Bolderwood; The Deer Watch Trail, The Jubilee Trail and the Radnor Trail.

Deer Watch Trail

If following the Deer Watch Trail watch for the yellow marked waymark posts. Head down the trail looking out for the yellow ring on the waymarker posts. All the trails are circular and lead back to the car park.

The Jubilee Grove Trail

If following the Jubilee Grove Trail watch for the blue marked waymark posts. Head down the trail looking out for the blue ring on the waymarker posts. All the trails are circular and lead back to the car park.

Trail Overview

Start/finish:

Bolderwood car park.

Grid reference SU 242 086

whats3words.com/consonant.though.rejoined

Ordnance Survey map:

Explorer OL 22 New Forest.

Distance:

Deer Watch Trail, 0.3 miles (0.5 km) Jubilee Grove Trail, 1 mile (1.6 km) Radnor Trail, 1.9 miles (3.1km).

Local facilities:

Bolderwood car park has accessible toilets and picnic tables.

The Radnor Trail

If following the Radnor Trail watch for the red marked waymark posts. Head down the trail looking out for the blue ring on the waymarker posts. All the trails are circular and lead back to the car park.

Accessibility: The path is a moderately smooth gravelled surface, with two short but fairly steep slopes, and frequent resting places. The trail contains gates, situated on both sides of the roads where walkers cross.

