

Climate and Nature Emergency

As agreed at the January Authority meeting, the climate and nature emergencies have created a renewed sense of urgency to stem the decline in biodiversity and reduce greenhouse gas emissions. Our response – Net Zero with Nature – will be informed by government policy towards farming, land use and the environment, especially the Agriculture and Environment Bills, the response to the Landscapes Review and the 25 Year Environment Plan. We will then need to establish how this policy agenda can best meet the needs of the New Forest National Park.

Nature Recovery – Net Zero with Nature
A spatial plan for nature recovery for the National Park and immediate surroundings, included in the National Park Partnership Plan. (Lead Officer, Paul Walton)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lead stakeholders in the development of a spatial plan for nature, based on Lawton principles of bigger, better, more and more joined up habitats. • With partners, develop a portfolio of integrated projects for identified Nature Recovery Areas (beyond the core designated sites)
The range of public goods provided by the National Park supported by the developing Environmental Land Management (ELM) Scheme. (Lead Officer, Paul Walton)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordinate the work of the Forest Farming Group as the transition from Environmental Stewardship to ELM continues • Examine opportunities for the National Park to be a national pilot for ELM in 2021, ensuring commoning will be supported by the new scheme • Support the collaboration between farmers and landowners around farm clusters and delivery of land advice • Develop programme of communication for stakeholders around “net zero with nature” and “public money for public goods”
Measures in place to mitigate, and adapt to, the changing climate. (Lead Officer, Paul Walton)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Map current and potential carbon stores • Investigate if carbon offset schemes could deliver environmental benefits in the New Forest • Re focus the SCF to deliver innovative action on climate change and nature recovery

Green Halo – Beyond our Boundaries
An active, thriving Green Halo Partnership recognised for its catalytic role in enhancing the environment of the National Park hinterland. (Lead Officer, Paul Walton)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop the key themes arising from the Green Halo Conference Feb 2020: a National Park City Region / Waterside Vision / Natural Leaders • Coordinate a programme of events (min 4) and a further Conference in early 2021 • With partners, identify key Nature Recovery opportunity areas beyond the National Park boundary 	Green	Yellow		The ongoing C19 restrictions will make the programme of events challenging and a Conference in 2021 may have to be postponed or moved online
Nature Solutions – Delivery and Advice
NPA resources aligned to respond to opportunities presented by the Agriculture Bill, Environment Bill and Landscapes Review during 2020. (Lead Officer, Paul Walton)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ongoing liaison with Defra through the National Parks Agriculture and Rural Development group • Further develop the ‘natural capital’ approach to protecting the environment of the National Park • Scope the resource needed to implement the Local Nature Recovery Strategy in response to the Environment Bill • Examine the opportunities for nature recovery presented by the introduction of Conservation Covenants • Post OPOF, identify and plan to secure the resources needed to deliver the nature recovery plan (above) 	Green	Green

Connection with Nature and the New Forest National Park

We will champion the National Park as a place of inspiration, where everyone can enjoy, understand, value and care for its special qualities. The Landscapes Review proposes that we need a stronger mission to connect people to National Parks and we have adapted this year's work programme to highlight this. Other proposals in the Landscapes Review include increased inclusivity and diversity in National Parks, partnership working with the health sector, greater access for young people and also to improve routes and information on the ground. Connection to the environment is also key to the 25 Year Environment Plan's goals. Our 2020-21 programme will engender care and action to help the Forest and enable people to take action to tackle the nature and climate emergency. We will also carry out important research to inform delivery of the Partnership Plan and the next business plan.

Sustainable Communities in a Working Forest

The Landscapes Review asks 'how do we make sure both natural beauty and society benefit from change rather than suffer?' There are three proposals in the report, around strengthening the duty to foster vitality in communities, a new national landscapes housing association and piloting new approaches to transport. This area of work builds on our new Local Plan (with a range of policies supporting sustainable development) and our experience of working with communities over the last decade, looking where we can make the biggest difference with our resources. Focus will be given to projects to promote local distinctiveness and the commoning way of life.

Strong community-led approach to conveying sense of place and local pride. (Lead Officer, Paul Walton)	Assist communities and local organisations to lead cultural and natural heritage projects that foster identity and sense of place - work with at least four groups in this way (e.g. commoners voices, East Boldre etc)

Positive Land Use Change

Enabling the National Park to be richer for wildlife, resilient to climate change and deliver benefits for people such as flood alleviation and recreational opportunities. The Authority is in a position to influence positive land use change through its role as the local planning authority, by working with farmers and landowners and showing the leadership to develop a nature network for the National Park and its surroundings. The new Local Plan includes a number of land use based policies in relation to agriculture, green infrastructure, tourism and other leisure uses such as recreational horse keeping.

The current restrictions on the number of new homes that can be built in South Hampshire due to excessive nutrients (mainly nitrogen and phosphates) entering the Solent is an opportunity to incentivise better management of land in the catchment which is currently releasing nitrates, such as fertilised arable land, in order to reduce nitrate pollution reaching the Solent.

The Environment Bill will put biodiversity at the top of the environmental agenda with a requirement for almost all developments to provide at least 10% Biodiversity Net Gain (BNG). Developers, consultants and local planning authorities involved in the preparation and approval of planning applications will need to be ready for the changes.

This programme of work will also need to consider our response to increasing recreational and visitor pressures on land use.

Achieving Excellence

Through the Achieving Excellence theme of our work we measure progress on objectives designed to achieve the highest quality of service and delivery across the organisation. We also recognise that excellence means reacting quickly and efficiently to emerging issues and operating fairly and sustainably in everything we do.
